HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUES OF AMERICA

The Junior League represents a serious endeavor on the part of young women to become active and constructive factors in the communities in which they live, to be intelligent citizens, and to assist in promoting human welfare. In addition to providing the member with channels of work and training for volunteer service, the Junior League helps her to realize two vital concepts: (1) that she is not an onlooker, but is herself a part of the community; (2) that the community, in turn, is not an isolated unit but part of the nation and of the world.

It was in 1901, at the beginning of a new era for American women, that the first Junior League was organized in New York. At that time Mary Harriman (Mrs. Charles Carey Rumsey) and Nathalie Henderson (Mrs. Joseph Swan) realized what might be achieved if a group of young women were encouraged to take a more active part in some form of active service to their own neighborhoods through the settlement houses and other organizations in existence at the time.

Soon similar organizations to that in New York were formed in various other of the large cities—Boston; Brooklyn; Portland, Ore.; Baltimore; Philadelphia, and Chicago. In the spring of 1912 six of the seven Leagues then in existence held their first national conference in New York City. In 1921 the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., was founded by the thirty Leagues then in existence. Mrs. Willard Straight (Mrs. Leonard K. Elmhirst) was elected president and a Board of Directors was appointed and instructed to draw up a constitution.

After 1921 the Association grew rapidly until, in 1923, there were sixty-three Leagues. In order to establish a closer contact between the Leagues and the Association, the country was divided into six territories and in each a League member was appointed regional director to act as liaison officer between the Leagues of the region and the Association and to serve on the latter's Board of Directors. Now there are twelve regions, in each of which the Leagues elect every second year a member to serve as their regional director.

At the time the Association was first formed most League activity was in the realm of social work but the Board of Directors, realizing the opportunities which would eventually offer themselves to Junior Leagues, set down in the constitution the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic fields as those in which Junior Leagues should interest their members.

Gradually the Leagues realized that a benevolent "doing for others" was not enough, that they must form a partnership with professional community workers to effect the improvement of conditions. To do this required knowledge. As evidence of this the first course for provisional members was established in 1921 and such a course, which includes an examination of the various forces at work in the community, has been a prerequisite for active membership since 1927. Originally League projects were large enterprises—convalescent homes, day nurseries, curative workshops and the like. It was discovered, however, that to support these undertakings a disproportionate amount of time and energy often was going into money-raising to the exclusion of the educational process of volunteer service. Today where Leagues have projects the recommended type is one in which the demonstration element is present, the choice being based on the needs of the individual community in the light of the interest and money-raising capabilities of the League.

The League's realization of the need for expert guidance in their welfare activities soon led to the establishment of a trained social work staff at the Association's offices. Members of this staff were available for visits to Leagues to study the local situation and give advice. Similar service was then made available for Children's Theatre, Arts, Ways and Means, and Publicity. The Association also publishes the Junior League Magazine, issued monthly to each Junior League member.

HISTORY OF THE WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

The local League was organized in 1923 and was the 46th League to be admitted to the Association and was the first in North Carolina.

During the first five years the League was active in many projects such as opening a gift shop, sponsoring a pre-natal clinic, opening a Hospital for Incurables, operating a Beauty Parlor and forming a Children's Play Committee.

The next ten years shows that the League was continually expanding into new fields. The Newssheet was begun and a placement system was put into effect. The League also continued operation of the Hospital for Incurables, opened a Rag Market (later the Thrift Shop) and helped organize the Civic Music Association. After the Hospital for Incurables was closed on June 1, 1957, the League assisted in the organization of the Mental Hygiene Society of Winston-Salem. The League also financed a Child Guidance Clinic which opened on November 1, 1937.

The next several years the League continued to sponsor and finance the Child Guidance Clinic. New projects included the Hall of History, presentation by the Junior Programs, Inc., and the bringing to town of four New York Dramas of the Contemporary Theatre Series. The League also joined with other interested community groups in forming the Children's Theatre Board.

In 1941 the League's program of planned expenditure of surplus was begun with $3,000 donated to the Red Cross War Fund, $1,000 given to the Library Fund of the Winston-Salem Teachers College, $5,000 given to the Family Service Agency for the establishment of a Child Placing Agency and $4,500 to the Community Council for the development of the Radio Plan.

In 1942 the Child Guidance Clinic was closed and in 1943 the gift shop was sold.

During the war years the League members devoted the major part of their volunteer service to war-related activities. Support of the Radio Council continued as well as a donation of $1,000 to the Wachovia Historical Society. A survey by Miss Virginia Lee Comer, AJLA Arts Consultant, showed a need for development and expression of the creative arts in our community. In 1945 the beauty parlor was sold. In 1945 the major portion of the League's surplus was donated to the community. The 400 shares of Reynolds B stock was divided as follows: 50 shares to the City-County Hospital, 50 shares to the War Memorial Building Fund, 120 shares to the Mental Hygiene Society and 180 shares to the City Library. The Junior League Hospital Building was deeded to the Winston-Salem Foundation.

The League entered the Cultural field during these years by opening an Arts and Crafts workshop with Mrs. Chester Marsh as director. The League continued its financial support of the Radio Council and put aside $7,200 for the employment of a Community Arts Coordinator when the Arts Council proved its readiness to handle the money. The League also contributed $500 to the Piedmont Festival and sponsored a concert of the newly formed Winston-Salem Civic Orchestra.

In 1947 the city withdrew their support of the Arts and Crafts program and the League assumed the responsibility for the administration, financing and promotion of the workshop.

Support continued to the Symphony and the Piedmont Festival and in 1950 the League released the gift of $7,000 which it had held in trust for the Arts Council. In March of 1952, $3,000 was granted to the workshop and in 1951, the Arts Council established an Arts center and moved in a building owned by the Winston-Salem Foundation. In March the League's financial contribution to the Arts Center was completed through coordination of fund raising for the Arts groups under the Arts Council.

In 1952 the League had as its project the Children's Activities Program at the new City-County Library. The League voted the Library $1,500 for the first year and limited the League's sponsorship to three years. The League also continued support of the Arts Council with a donation of $5,000.

Two art exhibits were sponsored by the League in 1953 and recreational therapy was done in the Children's Wing of the Baptist Hospital. The next year showed the closing of the Thrift Shop and the beginning of our annual Rummage Sale.

In 1955 our three-year activity program for children was completed at the Public Library. The Recreational Therapy program at the Baptist Hospital was enlarged and the League continued to bring outstanding art exhibits to the Library. A new project was begun—providing the salary for a primary education teacher for the handicapped at the Children's Center.

During the next year the League strengthened existing projects and added to those services. An Adult program for the handicapped was begun and the therapy program at the Hospital enlarged.

The Handicapped Adult Program grew rapidly and the Hospital Therapy program was continued. The Cultural Arts Committee arranged a bus trip to Raleigh to tour the State Art Museum and $150 was offered as a purchase prize to the Gallery of Fine Arts in the name of the Junior League. A successful Rummage Sale was held as well as 5 marvelous productions of the play Sleeping Beauty. Attendance at regular meetings hit a new high and night meetings were continued.

In 1957 the League again contributed $5,000 to the Children's Center providing the school with a Kindergarten teacher. An art exhibit drew 3,700 people and the Rummage Sale was a great success. Night meetings were begun for professional members and those unable to attend the morning meeting. Two brochures were printed—one dealing with Admissions policies and the other describing the community activities of the Winston-Salem Junior League.

The League continued to strengthen existing projects in 1958 by donating $2,000 a year for the next two years to provide an aide at the Children's Center, by buying a metal awning for the Pediatric Ward at the Baptist Hospital and by giving $1,155 to the Arts Council.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF BOARD, 1958-1959

WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

PRESIDENT — LUCY WILSON

I know as many of you see me standing before you this evening you are saying to yourself, my this must be a happy occasion for Lucy, I can't honestly say that it is. For, I have never undertaken anything that has given me the satisfaction or genuine pleasure that being President of the Winston-Salem Junior League has.

I believe I can honestly say this has been a good year within the Junior League. I will try and report our activities through the year as they occurred.

In May Sophy Cody and Ann Strickland attended the Annual conference in Washington, D. C. from which they returned with a bee in their bonnet. That bee was what about Katharine Bahnson being the nominee for our next Regional Director. As you all know, this splendid idea has become a reality. Our entire region is to be congratulated for having nominated Katharine.

Katharine will go to the conference in Victoria several days prior to the opening for an Association Board indoctrination course. She will be elected at the Annual meeting there and will remain for another few days after the close of the conference for an Association Board meeting. As you can see a very busy year stretches before her.

In May the Cultural Arts committee arranged a bus trip to Raleigh to visit the Gallery. It was a most successful outing and I do hope will be repeated in the future.

In September before viewing Dick Anderson's movies of the World's Fair, we laid our plans for the October Rummage Sale, a sale held on two of the wettest and coldest days in years. The profits from the Sale were well above the Quota set. Although they did not quite meet last years record high, they were greater than any other previous year. We added many inovations at the sale—an indispensable loud speaker system and a snack bar, both of which I am sure will be continued in the future. At the last Board meeting we recomemnded changing the time of the sale to the spring. The possibility of using a warehouse affording a great deal more space, I feel presents an opportunity to greatly enlarge this activity.

In September I attended the President's Council meeting in Charlotte along with the other eleven Presidents in our Region. This is an annual meeting presided over by the Regional Director and paid for by the Association.

In October Mr. Albert Butler explained the workings of the Winston-Salem Foundation and in November we went to the brand new Community Center for our meeting where Ruth Pleasants and Chuck Mark introduced us to the new building and told us about the Art's Council plans for the future.

In December our Regional Director, Chessie Nicholson of Durham, paid us a visit. She arrived early Monday morning, December 1st, attended a Board meeting, followed by luncheon and trips to the Children's Center, The Community Center and the Goodwill Industries. Besides this she held conferences with several committees and Board members. On Tuesday she addressed the League at our annual December luncheon meeting.

Her letter written to me upon her return to Durham was a very complimentary report concerning our League. She reassured our Project Finding Committee that it was wise to go slow and most admirable to continue support of existing former League projects. This we have done. We have given to the children's Center $2,000 a year for the next two years to provide an aid. We have given the Pediatric's Ward at the Baptist Hospital a much needed metal awning for around $1,300 and we have given to the Art's Council $1,155 so that they may purchase a computer and necessary doors for the dressing rooms.

In order to get its new program underway the Children's Theatre Board requested the Junior League to finance its own play this year. I believe Mr. Charles Avery's visit last spring put new spark in the entire program in Winston-Salem and we were only too glad to finance our play this year and to do so until the Children's Theatre Board feels they can again take it over.

The production by the Junior League of Sleeping Beauty was given five times at the Community Center. Eighty-five Junior League members helped in its production.

You may have noticed this year the splendid coverage we have had in our newspapers. There were 42 newspaper clippings of League activities as well as 101 descriptive articles concerning League members in diverse phases of community activity.

Our attendance at regular meetings hit a new high this year. We averaged 143 members. Again night meetings were held following the morning meetings, a practice we plan to continue.

As most of our Junior League placement is done on an individual basis, it is hard to know what everyone is doing. This of course does not include the 85 members who worked on the play or the entire active membership who worked on the Rummage sale.

Twenty-five girls repaired toys at the toy shop. 6 drove for the Golden Age Club. 2 were Chamber of Commerce Guides. 10 worked at Old Salem, 4 at the Womens Exchange, 7 at the YWCA and 16 for the Red Cross. Twenty girls did correlations and research for the Radio-T.V. Council, 8 were hostesses at the Gallery of Fine Arts. Twenty-one worked on the children's program at the Baptist Hospital. The Boy Scouts had 17 volunteers and the Girl Scouts 15.

Besides these specific placement jobs many other needs in the community were filled by League members. Among a few of these were Church organizations, P.T.A.'s, Fund drives, Tanglewood and Little Theatre and medical auxiliaries. There were over 100 positions filled in these areas alone plus the outstanding record of 68 positions on community Boards filled by League members.

Again this year the By-Laws Committee was kept busy. We clarified several existing By-laws; for example, a girl must be less than 33 by June 1st when she is put up for admission, and an active member must remain active until the completion of the League year in which she became 40.

Several changes were made concerning dates for committee elections and a change was made allowing a girl invited to membership to receive her second invitation at a later date rather than the following year only.

We transferred 10 of our members from Winston-Salem to other Leagues and received nine transfers.

Besides the Cultural Arts Committee arranging the bus trip to Raleigh, they brought to Winston-Salem an exhibit "Drawings by European Children." This was hung in the Community Center and the Cultural Art's Committee was hostess to all of the city school teachers and personnel at a reception during this exhibit.

With the Boards approval, the Cultural Art's Committee decided to offer a purchase prize of $150.00 to the Gallery of Fine Arts in the name of the Junior League. This Purchase Prize was won by Mr. Alan Jones of Hampton, Virginia for his tempera painting "Squall." This painting is to be given to Wiley Jr. High when it opens next September.

It is our hope that this Purchase Prize will be offered again next year and for as many years as seems wise and that each painting be given to one of the city schools with a plaque thereon stating its donor.

In January of this year Dewitt Cordell and Nancy Owen were our delegates to the Regional Conference held in Durham. Nine Winston-Salem Girls attended part of this conference and I hope that next year when it is in Raleigh an even larger number will attend. These meetings are informative, stimulating and loads of fun.

We will be represented next month by Margaret Wade and Mary Ann Parrish at the annual conference in Victoria, British Columbia.

At the February meeting Sophy Cody informed us of the new and challenging program of the Goodwill Industries. The Junior League is very proud of Sophy and her tremendous contribution to the community through her work as President of the Goodwill.

Last month Mr. Harry Mann presented a program on our National Defense set-up, particularly the part communication is playing.

The Hospitality committee has become one of our busiest and thanks to their ingenuity one of the most financially successful. By selling the decorations at the June and December luncheons they met all of their expenses.

Our recreation program for Handicapped Adults grows every year. From a small beginning of ten participants, they total over fifty. This coming year the chairman of this committee will sit on the Board. Every month a party has been sponsored by the League for the "Poke Easys." The parties have included swimming parties, watermelon picnics, turkey dinners, attending the circus and even a bus trip to Durham where they were the guests of another such handicapped group. Our efforts in this area are certainly most worth while and rewarding.

I am proud to present this report for the year 1958-1959. It represents your efforts and your many accomplishments. You can take pride in your Junior League's progress this year. We continue to grow. Nineteen new active members and 15 new provisionals assure a bright future. I knew it would be a challenging undertaking, but I had no idea what a rewarding personal experience the presidency would be. I want to thank every one of you for having made it so.

The League is fortunate to have such a charming and capable new president. I know the switch from my brisk midwestern twang to Margaret's soft Southern accent will be a welcome and more familiar sound to you all. It is with genuine pleasure that I present the gavel to Margaret Wade.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucy Wilson

VICE-PRESIDENT

Again this year the Winston-Salem Junior League had required meetings for the Professional Members. These meetings were held on the same day as the regular monthly morning meetings. All members could attend either meeting.

A program, similar to the morning program, was planned for each meeting. In May, the meeting was held at the Children's Center. A guided tour of the new Center was the program. In June, the Annual Conference report was given at the Library by the delegate who attended. The September program was by Dick Anderson. He showed a film at the Library on the Brussels World's Fair. In October, the meeting was held at the Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts. Mrs. Ira Julian spoke on art appreciation. The November meeting was held at the James G. Hanes Community Center. Mrs. Clifton Pleasants and Chuck Mark discussed the Arts Council program and served as guides through the building. In December, a tape recording of a talk by Mrs. Sterling Nicholson, Regional Director, was used at the meeting at the Vice-President's house. The combined January-February meeting was cancelled due to bad weather. In March, Mr. Harry Mann of the Bell Telephone Co. spoke at the meeting at the Library.

At each meeting the minutes of the morning meeting were read. Attendance was taken and reported to the Assistant Treasurer. The average attendance was 19.

I attended the Annual Conference in Washington as a delegate and the Regional Conference in Durham as an observer. I also served as a member of the Placement Committee and the Education Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

BY-LAWS COMMITTEE

The following By-Law changes were mailed by the 1958-59 By-Laws Committee to each voting member two weeks prior to the May 1959 meeting and were voted on and passed at the May 1959 meeting. These changes do not represent alterations in policy but merely restate and clarify existing By-Laws.

ARTICLE III, Section 2. Admission to Membership, A. Eligibility. A proposed member shall be from nineteen through thirty-two years of age on or before June first. She shall have completed her schooling and shall have been a resident of Winston-Salem or its vicinity for at least one year at the time of her proposal on June first. If a proposed member moves out of the city before the invitation is issued, she may still be invited.

ARTICLE III, Section 2. Admission to Membership, C. Election to Membership: Invitations shall be mailed immediately to those elected. Before the candidate accepts the invitation, she shall agree to fulfill the duties and obligations of membership. The names of those who accept shall be announced at the April meeting.

To avoid misinterpretation the By-Law determining when an active member shall become sustaining was clarified by the By-

Law Committee. The By-Law reads: ARTICLE III, Section I, B. Active Membership—"An active member shall enjoy all rights, privileges, and obligations of membership until the end of the League year in which she reaches her 40th birthday . . ." Therefore any active member who reaches her 40th birthday anytime after April first of one year will remain active until April first of the following year.

Through the combined efforts of the By-Laws Committee and the Nominating Committee the following By-Law changes were presented at the December 1958 meeting and passed at the January-February 1959 meeting.

ARTICLE VI, COMMITTEES, A. Admissions Committee, (c.) Election of Committee—The sentence beginning "At the March meeting . . ." was changed to read: "Two weeks prior to the March meeting the Nominating Committee shall mail to all active members a list divided into three age groups of all active members eligible for election and the names of those present members of the Admissions Committee who are eligible for re-election." To the sentence beginning "Each active member present shall nominate . . ." add "At the March meeting each active member present may nominate . . ."

ARTICLE VI, COMMITTEES, D. Nominating Committee—The sentence "These shall be nominated from the floor at the April meeting from a roster of eligible members" was replaced by the following: "Two weeks prior to the March meeting a roster of League members eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee shall be mailed by the current Nominating Committee to all active members. At the March meeting each member may nominate from this list one person in each age group. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes in each age group will appear on the final ballot and will be voted on at the April meeting."

A substitute proposal for a tabled By-Law change was presented by the By-Law Committee at the January-February 1959 meeting and adopted at the March 1959 meeting.

ARTICLE III, MEMBERSHIP, Section 2, C. Election to Membership. The original sentence "In this event, the invitation shall be re-issued the following year only" was replaced with the following; "In this event, the invitation shall be re-issued a second time only upon the request of the candidate's sponsors to the Board of Directors."

CHILDREN'S CENTER

The Junior League has had as its project the salary of Miss Evelyn McNeeley at the Children's Center from April, 1956 to April, 1959. Miss McNeeley has developed a well-rounded educational program for the handicapped children from kindergarten through fourth grade. She has worked with the children in all recreational group activities, and helped with the music and crafts program. There is an enrollment now of thirty-four children at the Center. Miss McNeeley's work has proved of tremendous value and the League may well be proud of having made this possible for the children at The Center, and thereby performing a service to the Community at large.

The United Fund will now take over the responsibility of this fine teacher's salary. The Junior League, in electing to pay the salary of an aide for two years, shows continuing interest in the Children's Center and realization of what this interest means to the Community.

Jane G. Womble

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

The A.J.L.A. Children's Theatre consultant, Mr. Charles Avery, visited us in the spring. In line with one of his suggestions and the interest shown in trouping by the League at the coffees last year, we offered to troupe our play to the Forsyth County schools as part of the Children's Theatre Board Program. The County School Superintendent and many of the County principals were enthusiastic about the plan, but they felt they did not have enough support to be able to accept our offer this year.

At the December luncheon in celebration of thirty years in Children's Theatre, Mrs. John T. Simpson, Jr. read a history of the Junior League Children's Theatre activities and paid tribute to all those who have given so much to this project over the years.

In January, Mrs. Robert McCuiston told the provisionals about the beginnings of the Junior League Play Group and the Children's Theatre chairman explained the opportunities for service in this field.

Sleeping Beauty by Catherine Ellis Wilkinson was presented February 17 through 20 in five performances at the new Community Center Theatre. Our play was one of a series of three productions brought to children from kindergarten through fourth grade by the Children's Theatre Board. Only season tickets were sold. Limiting the age group of our audience, moving to a smaller auditorium and selling only season tickets were other suggestions made by Mr. Avery. We offered to put on two extra performances as part of a Children's Theatre Board program for colored children but this plan was turned down by the colored people.

Because the high cost of the Theatre program offered to school children cannot be met by selling season tickets for $1.00 and school officials felt that the price of tickets should not be made higher if we were to reach the maximum number of children, the Junior League financed as well as produced Sleeping Beauty. Actually this move simplified Junior League bookkeeping by doing away with the private bank account of the League Children's Theatre committee.

Eighty-five League volunteers worked on the play and forty-two children of League members danced. The costume committee made all new costumes. Fulfilling a long-felt need, Lentz Transfer and Storage Company has given us storage space for costumes and properties so our new costumes can be safely stored for future use.

Mrs. Hugh Johnson, Mrs. Robert Sartin and the chairman represented the Junior League at meetings of the Children's Theatre Board.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all League volunteers, my committee chairmen and especially my co-chairman, Mrs. Hugh Johnson, for their wonderful cooperation and effort.

Respectfully submitted,
Marjorie Beardsley

CULTURAL ARTS

The Cultural Arts Committee met in May and discussed:

The possibility of bringing an exhibit "Drawings by European Children" to the James G. Hanes Community Center Art Gallery to celebrate its opening.

The lack of art instruction in the city schools and the possibility of placing a permanent painting in the schools each year.

A bus trip to the State Art Museum in Raleigh for League members and friends.

The bus tour was made in May by a delighted bus load of travelers armed with picnic baskets and Art History books.

The results of our other plans crystallized in the mid-winter.

"Drawings by European Children" was obtained for January-February. Correlation sheets were sent to all the teachers in the City Schools. About 175 teachers attended an open house at the Community Center Art Gallery as well as members of the Woman's Club Fine Arts Department, sponsor of the Children's Art Exhibit in the city.

More than 400 school children saw the exhibit and toured the Arts Council building by appointment, with League members serving as guides. Audiences at the Children's Theatre Board play were given the opportunity to see the exhibit too.

In December, after a request was received from the Gallery of Fine Arts, our committee, with the Board's agreement, decided to offer a Purchase Prize of $150.00 to the Gallery in the name of the Junior League. This Purchase Prize was won by Mr. Alan Jones of Hampton, Virginia, for his tempera painting "Squall." This painting is to be given to Wiley Junior High School when it opens in September, 1959.

It is our hope that this Purchase Prize will be offered again next year and for as many more years as seems practicable, and that each painting be given to one of the City Schools with a plaque thereon stating its donor.

Our committee was small, but eager and resourceful, making the year's work a delight for the chairman.

Respectfully submitted,
E. Sue Shore

EDUCATION

The Education Committee consisted of nine members and the Chairman. The Committee met and formulated the plans for the year. The Committee worked with the Vice-President on the program for the night meetings.

The programs were planned by the Committee and were as follows:

September: Mr. Richard Anderson showed movies of the World's Fair.

October: Mr. Albert L. Butler, Jr. explained the workings of the Winston-Salem Foundation.

November: Tour of the Community Center where Mrs. Clifton Pleasants and Mr. Chuck Mark introduced us to the new building.

December: Visit to the League by Mrs. Sterling Nicholson, the Regional Director.

January: Mrs. William Cody informed us of the new program of the Goodwill Industries.

March: Mr. Harry Mann presented a program on our national defense set-up.

Respectfully submitted,
Sophia Cody

FINANCE

The Finance Committee, composed of the incoming and outgoing Presidents, Assistant-Treasurers, and Treasurer held one meeting in February to draw up the proposed budget for 1959-60.

The Children's Theatre chairman requested that we pay for the League's Children's Theatre production in 1958-1959 and that the Committee be budgeted for $500.00 in 1959-1960. The Board granted these requests.

Respectfully submitted,

HOSPITALITY

The 1958-1959 Hospitality Committee planned a June luncheon which was held at Forsyth Country Club. The decorations were sold to the membership.

Luncheon followed the December meeting at the Forsyth Country Club with our Regional Director, Mrs. Sterling Nicholson, the guest of honor. Sherry was served prior to the luncheon.

A tea honoring sustaining and provisional members was held at Old Town Club.

The annual Junior League Ball was held at Forsyth Country Club in February. The Ball was a dinner dance this year and was well attended.

It has been a pleasure to work with the members of this Committee.

MAGAZINE

The Junior League Magazine is published every other month. Announcements of marriages, births and deaths were sent to the Tidings editor. Changes of address have been sent in to the Circulation Department upon receipt of these changes from the Corresponding Secretary.

Magazines have been kept on file and information has been gathered for Tidings by the "grapevine."

NEWSHEET

During the year 1958-1959 nine issues of the Newssheet were prepared and sent to all members of the Winston-Salem Junior League, to all Leagues in Region XIII, the Regional Director, and advertisers. Six copies of each issue were sent to AJLA. Twelve Leagues outside of Region XIII have mailed copies of their Newssheet to the League.

The special feature, President's Letter, was continued as was the use of pictures and drawings. Each provisional worked on the Newssheet during the year.

The Newssheet has carried articles of the local League, the community, other Leagues and AJLA.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann Rigby

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee met a total of six times beginning in November and ending in March with the following results: the presentation of a straw ballot in November for suggestions for next year's officers; the drawing up of a slate of officers for 1959-60; the mailing of this slate to the membership and the final voting at the combined January-February meeting.

In addition, this committee selected two delegates and two alternates to the Regional Conference and presented these names to the Board in December. In March, this committee presented four candidates for delegates to the National Conference from which two were selected by vote of the membership.

At least two weeks prior to the March meeting a roster of League members eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee was given to all active members. At the March meeting each member nominated from this list one person in each age group. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes in each group appeared on the final ballot and were voted on at the April meeting.

Our procedure for electing the Nominating Committee is new this year. In the past, candidates were nominated from the floor from a list of eligible members (classified by number of years active) and voted on at the same meeting. This procedure was changed to the present one to give more opportunity for serious consideration before both nominating and voting.

Respectfully submitted,
Katharine K. Bahnson

PLACEMENT

After extensive reading by the Placement Committee on the most effective methods of interviewing, the first committee meeting was held. Plans were laid for a two day series of agency interviews during which the needs of the community could be assessed. A schedule of placement opportunities was then compiled and sent to each League member. There followed two days of placement interviews at the home of a League member. Telephone calls were made to each member, twice during the year, to ascertain how the Leagues' obligations to the community were being carried out.

The volunteer program covers the health, welfare and cultural fields. The largest group of volunteers serve in the cultural fields, due to our play. Eighty-seven people worked on the play in one capacity or another. The next largest group of volunteers was the seventy-five who worked on preparations for the rummage sale. Twenty-five girls helped repair toys at the Toy Shop, six drove for the Golden Age Club, two were guides for Chamber of Commerce tours, ten worked at Old Salem, four at the Woman's Exchange, seven at the Y.W.C.A. and sixteen for the Red Cross. Twenty girls did correlations, adaptations and research for the Radio-T.V. Council, eight were hostesses at the Gallery of Fine Arts. At the City-County Library four girls were story tellers, one arranged the display case and two helped with the record collection. Twenty-one volunteers worked with the children in Baptist Hospital, four at the Arts Council, seven delivered literature and were registrars for the Cancer, T.B. and Heart programs. Two helped at the Children's Center, three at the Child Guidance Clinic, and one in Civil Defense. The Boy Scouts had seventeen volunteers and the Girl Scouts fifteen.

Besides these specific opportunities offered on the Placement Calendar, many other needs in the community were filled by League members. Among a few of these were Church organizations, P.T.A.'s, Fund Drives, Tanglewood and Little Theatre, Medical Auxiliaries, etc. There were over one hundred positions filled in these areas alone plus the outstanding record of having sixty-eight positions on Community Boards filled by League members.

My thanks to the Placement Committee for its excellent work and cheerful co-operation. The splendid co-operation of the entire membership was most rewarding throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Joy Bennett

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Public Relations Committee, composed of a chairman and four members, met in May to formulate plans for the coming year.

The Junior League mobile, illustrating the community services of the League, was renovated and prominently displayed in the new Community Center, beginning with its formal opening through the month of November.

The Junior League scrapbook was kept up to date by the addition of 42 newspaper clippings of League activities as well as 101 descriptive articles concerning League members in diverse phases of community activity.

Announcements of League meetings were regularly listed in the Winston-Salem Journal and the Twin City Sentinel on the day prior to the scheduled meeting.

In March, a luncheon was held at the Twin City Club to express the appreciation of the Junior League to those persons in the community who have contributed materially to the success of the League program during the past year. Members of the Executive Committee, the Board, and the Public Relations Committee served as hostesses to the thirty-three guests who accepted their invitations.

The possibility of inaugurating a radio series, entitled Search for Peace, was investigated by the committee. At the time of this writing the material is under consideration by radio and newspaper representatives.

I would like to express my appreciation to the members of this committee for their enthusiastic support of this year's Public Relations program.

Respectfully submitted,
DeWitt Cordell

PROVISIONAL

The Provisional Course, planned to cover the entire year, followed the basic outline set forth in the AJLA Handbook. Field trips and lectures included: History of Local League and Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Parliamentary Procedure, Arts Council, Children's Center, Old Salem, Recreation Facilities, Housing Facilities, Health Services, City-County Government, Welfare, Community and Industry Planning, Goodwill Industries, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, and the City School System.

Each girl worked on the Newssheet, did Hospital Therapy work in the Children's Ward of the Baptist Hospital, worked on the Rummage Sale and helped with the Children's Theatre play. The girls also met with the Board of Directors of the League to learn board procedure along with duties and responsibilities of League committees.

Sixteen girls accepted invitations to become Provisional members. Four girls transferred as Provisionals to other Leagues. Four girls transferred to this League and have completed the course. One girl transferred in the middle of the course and will take her Provisional work next year.

The Provisional Committee is very proud of the sixteen girls taken into active membership in April, 1959. We have greatly enjoyed the opportunity of working with this excellent group of girls and we know they will make many fine contributions as new members of this League.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty G. Gulledge

PROJECT FINDING

The Project Finding Committee held its first meeting in March, 1958 to discuss suggestions from the coffees held in February. After careful screening of these suggestions, the Committee felt that past projects should be evaluated for their stability at this time. During the summer months and last fall, members of the Committee studied these projects. The following requests were a result of this study:

Arts Council—Equipment which has become necessary due to the growth of the Arts Council and to moving into the new building—$1,155.90.

Children's Center—Furnish an aide to assist the children, thereby relieving the professional staff members and allowing them to give their entire time to teaching and training the children—$2,000.00 per year for 2 years.

Hospital Therapy—Install a permanent awning on the porch of the hospital therapy room. This would enable the children to use this porch during the warm months of the year.—$1,300.00.

This amounted to a total of $4,455.90. There would also be a commitment of $2,000.00 for the second year at the Children's Center.

In November Sophie Cody spoke to the Project Finding Committee about the plans of the Goodwill Industries to establish a Rehabilitation Center. No formal request was submitted, but Sophie wanted the Committee to know of these plans as she feels there will be a place for the League in such a project.

The Committee received a formal request from the Y.W.C.A.

through Aurelia Eller. We have been requested to sponsor a program at the Y.W.C.A. for girls, ages 10-13, who are not being reached by the Red Shield Girls' Club or through any program now existing at the Y.W.C.A.

The Project Finding Committee felt that the three projects, The Arts Council, Children's Center, and Hospital Therapy, were not projects, but donations. Since the Y.W.C.A. request is one which requires a great deal of study and since the Rehabilitation Center of the Goodwill Industries has possibilities for League participation, these should be studied carefully by next year's Project Finding Committee.

The Committee was of the opinion that this year any one or all of the three donations would be of great assistance to each group involved in increasing the efficiency of their operation, as well as improving the public relations of the League. These three donations were brought before the League and all three were voted for favorably by the membership.

I would like to thank each member of the Committee for their assistance and cooperation.

Sarah F. Loman

RUMMAGE SALE

The Junior League Rummage Sale was held on October second and third, from nine-thirty a.m. to nine thirty p.m. at 1031 North Liberty Street, in a building owned by the city of Winston-Salem.

All marking, collecting, and sorting and displaying were done at this location, during the two weeks prior to the sale.

The marking committee was composed of twelve members, working three hours daily for two weeks before the sale. The sorting and display committee was composed of twelve members working four to six hours daily, ten days before the sale. Each member of the League was required to sell four and a half hours during the sale.

A snack bar proved a successful financial addition to the sale this year.

An intercommunication system provided music during the sale, as well as a means to advertise merchandise, and find lost mothers.

A Fashion Show was presented by Montaldo's on September 16th, to sponsor the sale, and bundles of rummage were collected as admission.

Acknowledgements by personal letters, to all parties contributing in any way to the sale, were sent either by myself, or the committees involved in the soliciting.

The net profit of the Rummage Sale for 1958 was $5,929.25. During the months of preparation, and the hectic days of the sale itself, there was never a crisis, nor conflict, nor failure in performance of anyone. In retrospect, it was a pleasant and rewarding experience, to work with girls who were both faithful and energetic. I know a tremendous respect and affection for our Junior League, as a result of working and associating with my committees. May I extend my heartfelt appreciation to these committees, and to all of you.

Respectfully submitted,
Julia Lambeth

(d) Inter-League membership shall become effective immediately upon presentation of the Inter-League card to the secretary, or other authorized League officials, of the League with which the member wishes to be temporarily affiliated. This League shall notify the home League within fifteen days of the date the Inter-League card is received.

(e) When the period of Inter-League membership expires, the inter-League card shall be returned to its owner.

(f) Upon return to her home League, an Inter-League member shall return her Inter-League card for cancellation to the secretary, or other authorized League official, who shall notify Association headquarters of the cancellation of the card.

Arranging Transfer of Members:

Section 1.

The corresponding secretary and the treasurer of the League from which a transfer is made shall be responsible for filling in the information regarding the member's record called for by the transfer card supplied by the Association. They shall also certify that the transferring member is in good standing and shall then forward the transfer card to the secretary of the League to which the transfer is made.

Section 2.

Transfers shall be accepted by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee of any League unless the member has no right to transfer under the provisions of Article 11-B, Section 3 of the By-Laws. Transfers shall be accepted in order of application, except that applications of members under 40 may be given precedence over those of sustaining members. Transfers shall become effective upon acceptance. Within 15 days thereafter the secretary of the League to which the transfer has been made shall notify on transfer cards supplied by the Association, the member involved, the treasurer's office at Association headquarters, and the member's former League.

Section 3

A member transferring from one League to another shall become subject to the jurisdiction of the League to which she transfers on the date on which such transfer is accepted.

A League receiving a transferring member may charge such transferring member the actual administrative costs incurred by such League in connection with her transfer.

A.J.L.A. GUEST ROOM INFORMATION

Junior League Section

The Junior League Guest Room Section of The Waldorf-Astoria is located on the 19th and 20th floors of the hotel's West (Park Avenue) side, and consists of 22 rooms.

For the convenience of our members, a lounge is maintained on the 20th floor. A waitress is in attendance from 2:00 until 9:00 P.M., to serve tea and beverages.

Cots and cribs may be put into guests' rooms upon request. A cot is $5.00 plus 5 per cent city tax per night, but there is no charge for a crib.

Sitters for children may be secured through the hotel. The usual charge is $1.00 an hour until midnight, $1.25 an hour after. Guests are requested to state the time they would like the sitter to arrive and about how long she will be required.

Cars may be stored at a nearby garage for $3.25 per night, including pick-up and delivery.

Accommodations

16 rooms—double occupancy—twin beds and private bath. Rates $16.50 and $18.50 daily plus 5% city tax.

6 rooms—single occupancy—2 with private baths. Rates $7.00, $9.00 and $10.00 daily plus 5% city tax.

Reservations

In writing for information or to make a reservation, always address Guest Room Hostess, Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., The Waldorf-Astoria, New York 22, New York.

Reservations cannot be accepted more than three months in advance. In case of cancellation, an immediate wire is requested. Cancellations made less than 24 hours in advance will be billed at full rate. This not only protects the Association against loss, but prevents the turning away of members who otherwise could be accommodated.

Reservations received by wire are answered by Western Union collect. Please indicate the name of your League when making reservations.

Since there are so few rooms in the Junior League section, it is only possible to assign the best accommodations when the exact dates of arrival and departure are known in advance. It is often impossible to retain rooms longer than the time specified in the reservation, due to the fact that they are reserved for the very date they are to be vacated.

Registration

8:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. — Upon arrival, please take the West elevators and go directly to the guest room desk in the AJLA office on the 19th floor to register.

9:00 P.M. to 8:00 A.M. — Upon arrival, kindly register at the front desk of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Length of Stay

Because of the great demand for accommodations, it has been found necessary to limit the length of stay to one month each six months.

A.J.L.A. Departure Time 12 noon.

Those retaining their rooms after departure hour will be charged for another day. Due to heavy bookings, we are unable to promise that accommodations always will be assigned immediately upon arrival.

Eligible Guests (other than League members)

Members of immediate families (husbands, children, parents, brothers and sisters) may be accommodated for a period not exceeding two weeks when the League rooms are not otherwise occupied. If accompanied by a League member the period is extended to one month.

Written authorization from a League member is REQUIRED for reservations of members of her family. Members are requested to write AJLA for the necessary form to be filled out in advance of making family reservations. No form is necessary, however, if the member accompanies her family.

Guests other than League members (or their immediate families) may be accommodated only when accompanied by a League member. League members need not request a form in advance when accompanying non-members.

When bringing guests, it is well to send their names in advance. This insures holding of messages and communications received at the hotel previous to arrival.

MEMBERS SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY UNPAID INDEBTEDNESS INCURRED BY GUESTS INTRODUCED BY THEM.

Telephone Connection

The most direct way for your friends to reach you is by calling the Waldorf-Astoria, ELdorado 5-3000, and asking for you by name. If you are out, messages may be left with the Waldorf operator and will be typewritten and sent to your room. The Junior League may be reached through the Waldorf number, or direct at ELdorado 5-4380. We will be glad to give information and render any assistance possible to your friends in reaching you.

Bills

Bills are mailed to guests after their departure unless they prefer to pay before leaving. Only United States Currency, checks on United States Banks or Checks on Canadian Banks payable in American funds can be accepted. CHECKS WILL NOT BE CASHED FOR MEMBERS UNLESS THEY ARE STAYING IN THE HOTEL AS JUNIOR LEAGUE GUESTS.
